Amend. 1 to
No. 84

Amendments approved on June 29, 1931, to Regulations for Warehousemen Storing Broomcorn, May 16, 1924.

Amend Regulation 6, Section 1, to read:

"There shall be charged, assessed and collected a fee of $10 for each warehouseman's license or any amendment thereto, and a fee of $3 for each license issued to a sampler, grader, weigher or an inspector."

Amend Regulation 6, Section 2, to read:

"There shall be charged, assessed, and collected for each original examination or inspection of a warehouse under the act, when such examination or inspection is made upon application of a warehouseman, a fee at the rate of $5 for each 1,000 bales of the storage capacity, or fraction thereof, determined in accordance with regulation 3, section 2, paragraph 1, but in no case less than $10 nor more than $200, and, for each reexamination or reinspection applied for by such warehouseman, a fee, based on the extent of the reexamination or reinspection, proportioned to but not greater than that prescribed for the original examination or inspection."

Amend Regulation 6, Section 3, to read:

"Before any warehouseman's license or amendment thereto, or any sampler's, grader's, weigher's or inspector's license, is granted, or an original examination or inspection, or re-examination or reinspection, applied for by a warehouseman, is made, pursuant to these regulations, the warehouseman, and/or sampler, grader, weigher or inspector, shall deposit with the bureau the amount of the fee prescribed therefor. Such deposit shall be made in the form of a check, certified if required by the bureau, draft, or post office or express money order, payable to the order of 'Disbursing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture!'"
